

The Rhode Island Association of Assessing Officers

The Rhode Island Association of Assessing Officers was organized at a luncheon meeting, at Johnston's Hummocks, February 1, 1962.

The new association, to become affiliated with the International Association of Assessing Officers, was formed with the following objectives:

- To improve the standards of assessment practice in the State of Rhode Island;
- To better acquaint the Assessing Officials of the State with more efficient and uniform administration of the tax laws of Rhode Island;
- To furnish an opportunity for discussion upon subjects relating to general property taxation;
- To elevate the standards of assessment administration by promoting a study of legislation which will strengthen and make more workable and understandable the general property tax laws of this State;
- In every proper way to promote justice and equity in the assessment of property in accordance with the Constitution of the State of Rhode Island.
